Board of Directors – Management

Section B. Eligibility

A candidate for the board must be:

3. To be eligible for election to Vice President or Sergeant-at-Arms, a person must have served as a Director or Officer on the MN USBC Board of Directors. To be eligible for election to President, a person must have served as a Director or Officer on the MN USBC Board of Directors for a minimum of two years immediately preceding the date said person would begin term if elected.

Reason for addition: To help with succession planning, the person coming in as President needs to be aware of all current business being conducted and the processes involved.
